ANNUAL REPORT

OUR MISSION

Iris Global is empowered by the love of God to stop for the one in need through worship, outreach, family, education, relief, development, healing, and the arts.

FOUNDERS' LETTER

Dear friends of Iris,

Thank you for your tremendous outpouring of love and kindness over this past year. We are seeing continued growth despite every kind of trial, even through the ongoing violent conflict in Northern Mozambique. We are witnesses to God's grace and goodness poured into our bases, churches, and communities throughout the world. Through your generosity we have been especially privileged to feed, comfort, and minister to more internally displaced people than ever before.

This year also blessed us with a great gathering of Iris leaders and family this past fall in Tennessee. With friends and co-laborers joining us from numerous nations on nearly every continent, to fellowship together in person was a joy we will never forget. We look forward to all the fruit that we know will come from the bonds of love between us.

We are anticipating that, after many years of planning and dedicated labor from our team of academic, legal, and administrative advisors, Iris University will soon be fully accredited and open to full time undergraduate students. In pursuit of this goal we are now offering a growing selection of short-term courses to adult learners at our Pemba campus. Please join us in continuing to pray for this project as it is exceptionally near to our hearts. Much work remains before us. It has been one of our longest-held dreams to establish this university as a strategic legacy on behalf of the people of Mozambique. We could not be more excited as we press ahead.

We know that all around us the world continues to shake. In media and government, fear abounds. In this time we want to pray Philippians 4:6-7 over you, our loved ones, and the global church: “Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

We do not hesitate to affirm that this is true in every situation, because we have seen it borne out by beloved friends even in lands filled with cruelty and strife. We can always find rest in a Kingdom that cannot be shaken, and in a love stronger than death. We also proclaim Isaiah 40:31: “But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not be faint.”

We bless all of you for the generosity that makes our labors possible. For feeding the hungry, for welcoming the stranger, for giving drink to the thirsty, for clothing the naked, for caring for the sick and for visiting the prisoners, we thank you. You have upheld our missionaries and families and neighbors in all these ways, and we rejoice knowing your reward is eternal. We also extend our deepest thanks to our selfless board of directors, our administrative team, and the precious army of intercessors who stand alongside us in the Spirit. The best is yet to come.

Love in Jesus,
